Charm

CHARM

main influences -

- blossom dearie
- margo guryan
- brazilian love songs

unlike sling because

- short, simple writing
- more forward about lust
- pop

like sling because

- weird chords
- advanced harmonies &
writing style, adult theme
- piano

unlike immunity because

- more refined pop
- piano main instrument
- less fluff, more about sex less censored

like immunity b/c

- pop
- songs may be short, commercial
- still what ~~pin~~ pinning away @ something → but more confidence with Charm , comes confidence comes assurance

comes sexual awakening

comes liberation

so what? what's the point? why does this matter to anyone? why should it?

- the point is to highlight everyone's right to enjoy sex, to feel sexy, to feel desire, to have desire - guilt free
- it's bits of my own story, with thoughts that feel widely universal when it comes to sex. " sexy to someone " sums this up
- having charm ~~of~~ or someone charming you could be from anything at all
- everyone should get the chance to explore sex in whatever way it feels for them. this liberation could even come from just finding confidence in one's self... charm doesn't have to lead to sex

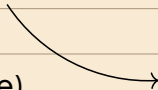

& that's important to emphasize...

“Charm” is a wonderful title because even through this record is about sexual liberation for me, it could just as easily be about one thing: finding charm in other people & yourself.

Charm is everything with & without sex, it's the moments leading up to sex, or the months of daydreams ~~behind~~ instead.

(to me)

at it's core, charm is wit

charm is sharp & sweet

DON'T RELY TOO HEAVILY ON SYNOPSIS

It has d???? f????re without it ★ - could go either way

crush
sexiness
★ attraction
kissing
★ lust
★ blushing
★ turned on

sex

“CHARM”

can go
this way or
that

no sex

daydreams
fantasy ~~attraction~~
thrill
fun, a game
crush
a glance, one
moment
treating someone
well, admiration
humor

self confidence
admiration
smiles wit
sweetness
humor

there is a negative
aspect to charm,
but i dont want to
focus on that

Charm is:

Sharp - (wit), humor, funny or brash lyrics, well packaged chords or phrases, someone confident while approachable

Sweet - soft chords, love songs, soft vocals, feminine, sensual, magnetic

examples of both -

- blossom dearie
- margo guryan
- feist
- suzanne vega

~ tread the line between feminine & masculine ~
